Our Mission

To increase diversity within the credit union community through Advocacy and Professional Development.

What Is The AACUC?

The African-American Credit Union Coalition (AACUC) was created to increase the strength of the global credit union community. We are a non-profit 501(c) 3 organization of African-American professionals and volunteers in the credit union industry.

Our Purpose

- Advocate legislation and issues for our members
- Offer mentoring and technical assistance to member credit unions in need
- Provide internship opportunities for juniors and seniors enrolled in Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs)
- Offer a minimum of three Pete Crear scholarships to juniors and seniors enrolled in an accredited HBCU
- Develop credit union leaders by offering scholarships for professional development
- Educational and networking opportunities with colleagues from across the country

Who Can Join?

Credit union professionals, volunteers, credit unions, leagues, regulators, vendors and trade associations working in the credit union industry. Visit us online at www.aacuc.org or call us at 866.782.2282.

PETE CREAR SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship awards qualifying individuals with financial assistance to aid in the pursuit of higher education. Individuals qualifying for these scholarships are professionals or volunteers and must be members of the African-American Credit Union Coalition. Interns participating in the AACUC's Reaching Toward the Future Internship Program are eligible as well as any junior or senior enrolled in an accredited college or university.

INTERNSHIPS

The Reaching Toward the Future Internship Program is an exciting internship program for college juniors and seniors sponsored by the AACUC. This program was developed to promote awareness and opportunities for African-American students attending colleges and universities on the benefits of working in a credit union environment. It is the goal of this program that the students will gain enough practical experience within a credit union that they will be able to apply for management and other staff positions in credit unions upon graduation.

Students in this program will have access to:

- Mentoring from high profile seasoned credit union professionals
- Exposure to different management techniques
- Information on the credit union movement and the benefits for African Americans
- Information on career progression in the Credit Union Industry
- Opportunities for job placement upon graduation

MENTORSHIP

Partnered with the World Council of Credit Unions (WOCCU) Distinguished Educator Program to provide internship opportunities. Mentored credit unions in the U.S. and Africa by offering strategic planning collections and reconciliations.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. MEMORIAL

AACUC led the effort to involve the credit union industry in contributing $1.4 million for the MLK National Memorial.
